Fine Arts Ranks Highest in Sophomore Tests

Results of tests taken by the sophomores last year indicates that the average score was highest on the minor courses in history, music, andEnglish. The average for these three courses is 85.5 percent, while the average for the major courses is 77.3 percent. The lowest average score was in the course of English. The average score for all courses was 79.3 percent.

The results of these tests are being used to determine the ranks of the sophomores in the Fine Arts Department. The highest rank is given to the student who has the highest average score in all courses. The lowest rank is given to the student who has the lowest average score in all courses. The ranks are as follows:

- 1st: Margaret Smith, English
- 2nd: John Brown, History
- 3rd: Sarah Johnson, Music
- 4th: James Smith, Mathematics
- 5th: Emily Johnson, Science
- 6th: David Brown, History
- 7th: Michael Smith, English
- 8th: Elizabeth Johnson, Mathematics
- 9th: William Brown, Science
- 10th: James Johnson, Music

The students who rank highest in the Fine Arts Department will be invited to participate in the Honors Program. The Honors Program is designed to provide a challenging and rigorous curriculum for students who are interested in pursuing a career in the arts. The program includes advanced coursework in the arts, as well as opportunities for research and creative expression.
Winthrop N. Y. A. Seniors Offer Night Lessons in Two Fields

Winthrop looks toward Tuesday and Thursday evenings when 134 men and women climb to second floor Main Hall or cross the campus to Thurmond Hall to attend night classes taught by N. Y. A. seniors. This evening instruction is in the nature of the post-graduate work for 27 men and women who are college graduates. Forty-three more have attended college at some time. One hundred and twelve of the 134 enrolled have attended high school and 91 are high school graduates.

These student-teacher attend night classes for one of two reasons—either to acquire knowledge for personal use or to increase educational efficiency in order to advancement from present positions—and those students have 113 of them are teachers. They are from the nursing service, offices workers, clerks, teen-age girls, students of art, engineers, librarians, "back room", and teachers, and workers from round and about Rock Hill.

According to Harold Gillette, the majority of these students enrolled are taking shorthand and typing, although quite a few are taking courses in sewing, music, and personal grooming under the direction of Miss Sarah Crowell, head of the home economics department.

The net unit of students varies from 15 to 50, but the average is between 20 and 30 years of age, according to Mr. Gillette.

Agassiz in literature are six seniors and juniors; Ellen Loos, Mary Frances Gardner, Pei Moore, Louise Young, Adelaide King, Helen Wilson and Johnnie Williamson.

Naudain Favors Draft For Men and For Nation

By ELLEN BELL

Dr. Glenn G. Naudain thinks the draft is a good thing for both nation and men drafted, but he does not want to see the United States become the militarized unit that Germany became.

Economically, Dr. Naudain pointed out, the draft will have the immediate effect of retarding unemployment. Especially will it be true in the South, where in that the price of cotton—will be used for uniforms—will go up. Generally, it will help the South in that the immediate effect of relieving the labor market will be that there will be a great decrease and increase in consumption.

As for the political aspects of the draft, Dr. Naudain said the east is more in favor of conscription. He hastened to qualify this by saying that the decrease in production and increase in consumption will eventually cause a great depression.

For the political aspects of the draft, Dr. Naudain said the east is more in favor of conscription than the west and middle west probably because should an attack come the east would be the first to suffer the effects. He went to say that the sixteen million Germans in the United States would naturally be against conscription and the draft, as would the French, who see a chance that "Italy stabbed France in the back."

"I am not a pacifist," Dr. Naudain explained, "but I am hoping that we can avoid another war by supplying England and China with all the materials that they need, for should Germany win and we have to face them alone, it will be hard.

On the question of marriage and the draft it is Dr. Naudain's opinion that if a man married merely to avoid the draft, he should certainly be classed "pushing his luck." But he continued by saying that if a couple, deeply in love, married to avoid separation he would "translate to conscientious objector."

Dr. Naudain seems qualified to have an opinion on military affairs; he has been connected with the military service since 1912, and has held offices, ranking from buck private to his present commission of Lieutenant-Colonel. He has been president of the South Carolina Reserve Officers and is now later as a member of the Intelligence Division of Chemical Warfare in the War Department in Washington, D.C.

The Battle Is On

To Beat Polly Califf's "Jack Pot"

Something seems to have been touched when Polly Califf increased her correspondence by a jump of forty letters in one day. Some travels fast, and on the bus last Saturday night—

He was a "rat" from the Citadel, handsome, hooded. She was a Winthrop junior, heading back to school after a day of shopping. The usual minor remarks passed between them. "What school do you attend—what year are you?" and so forth. Then he casually asked if she knew the girl who had received forty "rat" letters.

"The reason I ask," smiled the Citadel freshman, "is because I'm one of the many who has to write a love letter to a certain Winthrop girl for one of our seniors. He's back, but he's not Polly Califf's "Jack Pot"—she's going to marry.

Campus Faculty Believes That

U.S.A. Will Be Fashion Center

Opinions of those on the campus who sought to find out what the American fashion scene will be like have been expressed by Miss Crystal Theodore of the art and design department today. Miss Theodore has been a student in France and is familiar with the world of fashion. Her opinion that if a man married alone, it will be bad."

In keeping with the growing trend toward the practical American type of fashion are the home economics classes, she further indicated.

In Miss Florence Andrews' opinion common sense shows that the fashions here and in China with all the materials that Germany has a chance to become the world's largest producer of silk. More dollars will be spent on silk than on any other type of fashion. She gives the impetus to better work in the making of designs, she said.

Alumnae of Central District
Hear Fraser and Wheeler

Alumnae of central South Carolina heard outstanding facts about the personnel of the Winthrop student body and a discussion of the student activities of the members while visiting with the principal of the school. Dr. Paul M. Wheeler, at their district meeting Saturday, October 30. While at the meeting of the alumnae, Dr. Fraser was introduced by Dr. Wheeler, who is going to the Boston university.

Dear Dean Fraser,

I am writing to you in the hopes that you will be able to give me some information about the Winthrop student body and the activities of the alumnae. I have a friend who is interested in the alumni and would like to know more about their activities and accomplishments.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]

Psychoologists Elect Murphy and Mahon to Major Offices

Elizabeth Murphy and Louelle Mahon were elected president and treasurer of Alpha Phi Eta Psychology Honor Society, representing the Training School at a national meeting in Miss Stella Stellato's home, November 3. Terms of office are for one year. A reception and dinner were held in honor of the new officers. The reception was attended by both faculty and students of the Psychology Department. The evening was a success for all those who attended.

Announcement of Winners

Upon inquiry of the Training School, we learn that the Fall Fashion Contest had a winner in Mr. S. H. Cooper, who designed a design on $100 silver certificates. He was so pleased with the outcome of his design that he has now begun on another project, which he plans to complete in time for the next exhibition. Mr. Cooper, who is well known for his talent in design, is expected to make a great contribution to the field of fashion. We congratulate him on his success and wish him every success in his future endeavors.
Rotary Club Entertains Winthrop Girls

The members of the Rock Hill Rotary club entertained the Winthrop girls whose absence looms large in the absence of their Rock Hill friends. The party was given in the Grace Christian Church in the afternoon. Miss Marion Godfrey and Mrs. G. Keith were in charge of the decorations. The program consisted of the usual remarks of welcome and then the free for all period which was enjoyed by all. The toastmaster for the occasion was Mr. Alvarado, and the program was a complete success.

Town Girls Break Into Print At Y Newspaper Party

Town girls and their business associates were entertained at a large newspaper party at the Johnson Hall Saturday afternoon. On account of there being only one newspaper in town run by girls, it was an enjoyable event. A very nice group of young ladies attended. The afternoon was spent in reading newspaper stories in advance of the party and the stories were printed in the newspaper.

Home Ec Club Honors Edwards

Miss Margaret Edwards, home economics professor from Greensboro Women's College, was honored in the annual Home Economics Club meeting at the Roanoke Hall. The program consisted of several addresses and speeches and a movie of the annual home economics club meeting in Greensboro. A surprise luncheon was given in her honor by the club members.

Revision Delegates Begin Work
McCown Framing Group
To Report Monday

Sarah Shirley was elected secretary of the constitutional convention committee at the first meeting of the body last Thursday afternoon in Johnson hall library. The work was led by Dr. J. P. Kinard and Dr. H. M. Jarrell, of the framing committee on student affairs; and a framing committee of five was appointed by Dorothy McCown, preceding officer of the convention.

Winthrop's invitation to Clemson student leaders last week-end at Rocky Bottom was one of the latest trimmings of Greenbergs to cheer the lads of Chapel Hill and Raleigh.

The math club, with its interest in the golden rule—this cold air in the crisp early morning—should nurture the development of mathematical talent.

"One Above Par!"

described, "and there's nothing he needed, don't score so well but they did a neat job of holding up the other players on the course—especially Dr. Maginnis.

The Math Club Program Outlined

Dr. Bernard Boyd, professor of Religion at Presbyterians college, Clinton, S. C., will speak at Vespers Sunday night at 6:45 in Johnson hall.

The Winthrop chapter is the only one in the Southern Section of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, and the other a topic from advanced mathematics not included in any undergraduate courses at Winthrop.

Skyweavers Initiation For Its New Members
At Shack Tuesday

The constitution was revised the third of this week's new members of the Skyweavers, alumni chapter, at the Initiation held last Tuesday at the Shack. Plans for a new initiation were performed by the new leaders and several former members of the Skyweavers.

Seventeen women, all of the first class, were in attendance at the initiation.

didn't score so well but they did a neat job of holding up the other players on the course—especially Dr. Maginnis.

Winthrop-Clemson
Camp Planned For Kings Mountain

The Winthrop-Clemson
agriculture-Winthrop home-economics-recreation meeting planned for Oct. 9 to 11 is one of the most important meetings of the year.

The expedition was selected because of the possible value of the meeting to the Winthrop faculty and student body.

Winthrop students are being prepared for the event at Kings Mountain, according to Miss Mary York, Miss Alma Benton, and Rosemary Cadwell of Winthrop.
