19 Seniors Rate '40-'41 "Who's Who" Selected For Outstanding College Work

Nineteen outstanding seniors were elected this week to represent Winthrop college in the '40-'41 edition of "Who's Who Among Students of American Universities and Colleges," as announced by Dean Kate Hardin and President Shelton Phelps.

Receiving this honor, the only national recognition denoting high standing of men and fees, are: Carl Ray Hardin, editor of The Tatler; Frances Carville, dining room attendant; Dean Baker, head of Preparatory School; Margaret Williams, head of English; Thelma Hinson, president of the Student Government Association; Mary Taylor, president of the Home Economics Association; Daisy Masters Jones, secretary of Student Government Association; Walter O. Krieg, president of the Atlantic Club; Vivian Utley, Manager of the Atlantic Club; Kay and Eliza Kain, head of Kain's Department; Louise Lane, assistant manager of the Atlantic Club; Russell D. Moore, business manager of the College of Business; Miss E. S. Gilbreth, president of Student Government Association of the Women; Sylvia Newn, manager of the Women's Building; Mabel Tomlinson, head of the ivy, dillon, and cedar; Margaret Hall, South Carolina state college, Doris Corley, class of 1940; Howard Kern; The Tatler, Sylvia Newn, manager of the Women's Building; Roy T. Wilson, chef, chef's aide; Frederick Grice, president of the Student Senate; and Miss P. T. Whitlock, president of the Student Council.

The purpose of "Who's Who" is to help students get the most out of their college experience. It is a reward for what they have done, a measure of their achievement, and an aid in self-appraisal, and in the search for a line of study that will be of interest to them.

Requirements for listing in the "Who's Who" include good character, leadership in extra-curricular activities, scholarship, and potentialities.

Seven Chosen. To Fill Marshal Quota for '40

Seven juniors have been selected by the marshal's committee to complete the quota of thirty-two marshals for 1940-41, according to Dean Kate Hardin, chairman of the committee.

Students selected to don the Scarlet and White are Martin Anderson, plaintexter; Dorothy Ambrose, student; James G. Avant, member of the faculty; E. L. Bagwell, member of the faculty; N. S. Bagwell, member of the faculty; W. C. Bagwell, president of the Student Council; and W. L. Bagwell, member of the faculty. The latter includes the resumés of language, music, and art education. The students will be required to study for examinations and must be prepared for study in the field of algebraic geometry.

The calculus will take up among other things, the theory of power series, partial differentiation, geometry of curves, and functions. The students will be required to study for examinations and must be prepared for study in the field of algebraic geometry.

The type of course is designed to prepare students for advanced work in mathematics.

Black Drop Appears On Sun Day, Says Stokes

A black drop, visible to the naked eye, will be occurring on Sunday, July 3rd, at 7:00 p.m. This phenomenon is caused by a meteor shower known as the Perseid shower. The black drop is a small, dark spot in the sky that lasts for a few seconds. The Perseid shower occurs every year in August and is visible from most parts of the world.

nobody's got a win.

And we wish we had more than this. The cheer leaders are all satur digging up new ideas and nursing them carefully —something to happen this week. Classes will produce and hope for victory. It looks like something in gonna be on. Said Mary Wood to Margaret King, "You upperclassmen, we must be in the house this year." Respéct Margaret, "Yep, I know. I'm practically quivering in my boots." Well, Monday night will tell. Meantime, don't forget to go to the hockey game Monday evening at 4:40.
That counts, too. y'know...

Around the campus Sunday afternoon was Clemson's Bobbitt Denverstorf and our Connie Smith—both quite ac-active in sports and college tournaments. Which reminds us that we'd like to see more intercollegiate sports days here.
We like the idea of inviting others to join in our activities.

On the Gridiron

Last week Georgia Tech was a disappointment—we had-
't expected Duke to trample them quite so badly. But what we had more of was to walk off with Clemson, 18-0. I haven't seen Tulane in action on the field, but they must be rather good—or just lucky—to defeat the Tigers like this. We're going to be better luck for Clemson.
They should have taken that game. "Mr. RooevolTa my
