

Phi Alpha Theta

2019 Carolinas Regional Conference:

Saturday, April 13th, 8am-5pm

Hosted by Winthrop University

CALL FOR PAPERS!

PLEASE JOIN US ON FRIDAY, APRIL 12TH AT 6PM FOR A RECEPTION FOR ALL CONFERENCE ATTENDEES.

- Undergraduate and Graduate students are invited to submit paper proposals for presentation at the Phi Alpha Theta 2019 Carolinas Regional Conference. Papers may address any topic in any field of history.
- Awards will be given for the best paper presented by Phi Alpha Theta members. Non-members may also present papers but will not be eligible for awards.
- Please provide abstracts (limit 250 words) of individual papers and the proposal forms to the faculty advisor of your Phi Alpha Theta Chapter for preliminary approval. The proposal package should be forwarded by them by Friday, March 8 to Dr. Catherine Chang (changc@winthrop.edu), Department of History at Winthrop University, 803-323-4957. If it is not possible to secure the guidance of a faculty advisor, you may submit your abstract and proposal form directly to the program committee by the specified date.
- For more information, please contact Dr. Catherine Chang.