

Ms. IN THE CLASSROOM

Ms. in the Classroom presents
Teaching Women's Studies Online
SEWSA 2016
Winthrop University
Thursday, March 31, 9:00am-12:30am
Twitter Hashtag: #MsTeachWS

Workshop Objectives:

- To adapt an existing course for online delivery and/or develop a new, "born digital" online course
- To integrate best practices in online course design and feminist pedagogy
- To explore digital tools for developing interactive, multi-media teaching environments
- To engage students with digital resources for the feminist classroom, including the new Ms. Digital Readers "Gender, Race & Class" and "Introduction to Women's Studies"

Workshop led by:

Kelly Finley, M.A., Women's and Gender Studies, UNC, Charlotte
Michele Tracy Berger, Ph.D., Women's and Gender Studies, UNC, Chapel Hill
Karon Jolna, Ph.D., Director, Ms. in the Classroom

Agenda:

- 9:00 a.m. Welcome
- 9:10 a.m. Some Guidelines for Engagement
- 9:20 a.m. Mini-lecture 1: Building an Online Persona for Teaching and Learning
- 9:30 a.m. Activity 1: Who Are You? What Do You Teach? One Thing You Want to Learn?
- 10:00 a.m. Mini-lecture 2: Nuts and Bolts of Setting Up an Online Course – Kelly Finley
- 10:30 a.m. Mini-lecture 3: Best Practices (ground rules, email, online etiquette, accessibility, endings) – Kelly Finley
- 11:00 a.m. Resource Profile 1: Using New Ms. Digital Reader "Gender, Race & Class" – Karon Jolna
- 11:30 p.m. Resource Profile 2: Using New Ms. Digital Reader "Introduction to Women's Studies: So you Want to Change the World?" – Michele Tracy Berger
- 12:00 p.m. Activity 2: Plans for Action
- 12:20 p.m. Closing Round
- 12:30 p.m. Adjourn